ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States in a managerial or executive capacity, namely as its president. The director determined that the petitioner failed to provide sufficient evidence to establish that the beneficiary had secured sufficient physical premises to house the new office; the foreign entity is able to fund the new business; and the credibility of the U.S. entity's business plan.

On appeal, the petitioner indicated that he would submit a brief and/or evidence to the AAO within 30 days. The notice of appeal is dated June 2, 2003. To date, the AAO has not received any additional evidence. Therefore, the record is considered complete.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states in part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

As the petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
